SEALED ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF’S MOTION TO EXTEND TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND TO CONTINUE PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION HEARING

This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff Grand Isle Games, LLC (“Plaintiff”)’s Sealed Motion to Extend Temporary Restraining Order and to Continue Preliminary Injunction Hearing (D.E. 28) (the “Motion”). Plaintiff seeks a further extension of the Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order (“TRO”) initially entered on April 22, 2025 (D.E. 17), and subsequently extended by Order dated May 8, 2025 (D.E. 25, 26).

The Court has reviewed the Motion, the arguments and authorities cited therein, including Plaintiff’s arguments concerning the operative date of the Temporary Restraining Order (D.E. 17) for the purposes of calculating the durational limits under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(b)(2) in light of the bond posting date, and the record in this action.

The Court finds that Plaintiff has demonstrated good cause for a further extension of the Temporary Restraining Order and for a continuance of the Preliminary Injunction hearing. Plaintiff has shown diligence in effecting service of the TRO upon numerous third-party e-commerce platforms, social media services, and financial payment processors. However, additional time is reasonably required for these third parties to fully comply with the TRO's directives, including asset restraints and the production of expedited discovery. Further, Plaintiff requires additional time to receive and analyze this discovery, which is crucial for identifying Defendants and the scope of their infringing network, and to continue efforts to effect service upon the numerous and elusive Defendants themselves pursuant to the Court's previous Orders. The conditions justifying the initial ex parte relief also continue to exist, and an extension is necessary to preserve the status quo and prevent irreparable harm pending the Preliminary Injunction hearing.

Accordingly, for good cause shown, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

Plaintiff's Sealed Motion to Extend Temporary Restraining Order and to Continue Preliminary Injunction Hearing (D.E. 28) is GRANTED.

The Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order entered on April 22, 2025 (D.E. 17), as previously extended on May 8, 2025 (D.E. 25, 26), is hereby FURTHER EXTENDED and shall now expire on May 29, 2025 at 1:00 p.m., unless otherwise extended by the Court.

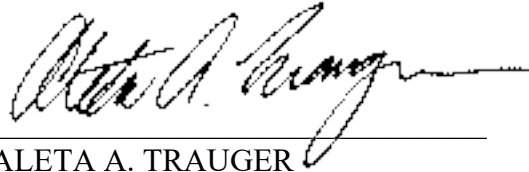

The Preliminary Injunction Hearing, currently scheduled for May 20, 2025, is CONTINUED and RESCHEDULED. The hearing is now SET for May 29, 2025, at 1:00 p.m. in Courtroom 6C.

All other provisions, terms, and directives of the Court's Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order (D.E. 17), including but not limited to the enjoined conduct, asset freeze, third-party compliance requirements, expedited discovery authorization, and alternative service methods, shall remain in full force and effect throughout the further extended period of the TRO, unless otherwise modified by subsequent order of the Court.

This Order, and the Motion leading to it, shall be filed and maintained under SEAL until further order of this Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
